License of Occupation, Operating and Management Agreement
Notice of Termination

The Governors of the University of Calgary (the “Governors”) and The Students’ Union, The University of Calgary (the “Union”) are parties to the License of Occupation, Operating and Management Agreement (the “LOOMA”) made effective December 10, 1999 in respect to the MacEwan Student Centre and MacEwan Hall.

The original term of the LOOMA ended December 9, 2004 and, pursuant to Section 3.3 of the LOOMA, the Union has exercised its two options to renew for successive periods of five years. The Governors and the Union acknowledge that as of December 9, 2014, the LOOMA is deemed to be renewed for a further one year term, as set out in Section 3.3, and that either the Governors or the Union may notify the other at least sixty days prior to the end of the then current Fiscal Year that the LOOMA shall terminate.

Accordingly, the Governors notify the Union that the LOOMA shall terminate on December 9, 2015.
