

WHAT IS SLC?

SLC (or Students' Legislative Council) takes place on Tuesdays at 6:30 PM, bi-weekly in the Spring and Summer semester and weekly during Fall and Winter. Attending SLC is one of the most important jobs as an Elected Official with the Students' Union. Make sure you keep your calendar clear on Tuesday nights.

SLC is made up of 25 student representatives, who are elected each year by undergraduate students in the SU General Election.

There are FOUR executives: President, VP Academic, VP External, and VP Internal. These are elected by all undergraduate students.

There are 21 Faculty Representatives, elected by students in each undergraduate faculty. Some faculties have more than one representative, based off their enrolment (more students = more representatives).

SLC is the main governing body of the Students' Union.

It also makes all decisions pertaining to the structure of the SU including:

Bylaws

Policies

Strategic Direction

It exists to represent student interests and concerns, and makes decisions such as:

How to vote on tuition increases

The SU's stance on market modifiers

How or should the SU amend its own bylaws, etc.

SLC is open to the public. You are welcome to sit in the gallery at SLC meetings, and it's a great way to help understand how it and the SU operate.

All past SLC minutes are available online. You can read what was discussed, and how certain issues were voted on.
