Q Centre Pride Scholarship Application Form

The Q Centre Pride Scholarship is a Quality Money initiative dedicated to recognizing University of Calgary undergraduate students who are actively dedicated to the queer community.

Two $1,500 scholarships are given out at the end of both fall and winter semesters. Scholarship recipients will be notified within three weeks of the deadline. Scholarships will be presented at an awards reception, hosted in the Q Centre, in December and April of each year.

Applicants must:
- Be a full-time University of Calgary undergraduate student in good academic standing (GPA of 2.0 or higher).
- Be returning for full-time undergraduate studies in the upcoming academic semester.
- Have contributed to the betterment of the queer community in a meaningful, unique, outstanding, or otherwise positive way.

Supporting documents required:
- This completed application form.
- A letter of intent describing your personal commitment, contributions, innovations, and involvement with the queer community.
- An unofficial transcript.
- Proof of enrollment in full-time undergraduate studies for the upcoming academic semester.
- A letter of reference from an individual of your choosing.
